1867. "THE WORLD" 1867.

THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC IS INVITED to the claims of "THE WORLD" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merit consists in its character as An enterprising and Trustworthy Newspaper.

The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions, than even any of the eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requisite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy, and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD adopts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance.

THE SENTINEL.

Wednesday, January 30, 1867.

The following sensible views are commended to the disunion loyalists of this State. If the honest misguided portion of them would take counsel from such sources they would abandon their demagogical leaders:

Few things are more common than the assertion that the Southern people have lost all their rights by rebellion. They have the right to live and to earn wages. They are entitled to a jury trial, to the right of free speech, to peaceably assemble and petition for a redress of their grievances. We could not undertake to deprive them of their fundamental rights without proclaiming ourselves the worst of tyrants. Nay, we could not undertake to deprive them of their rights without violating the organic law of the nation, the formal expression of principles which consitute the national life.

But where is there a line in that instrument which contemplates forfeiture of rights?—Whence can we deduce from it any right to divest any man, whether citizen or foreigner, whether loyal or disobedient, of any of his rights, save on conviction and trial?

If there is anything contemplated by that instrument, if there is any foundation or principle on which the whole superstructure of American freedom rests, it is self-government.—All governments derive their power from the assent of the governed. That is the great American idea. But this notion of forfeiture of rights is utterly destructive of this great cardinal doctrine of the Revolution, enunciated in "the days that tried men's souls," and gloriously embodied in the immortal work of the framers of our Government. We lay it down as an indisputable maxim, that, under our free Government, there is no such thing as a forfeiture of the great rights of American citizenship, save on conviction of crime.

But this modern dogma, of which the Boutwells and the Butlers are the high priests, carries with it an assumption that it is utterly at war with the spirit of our institutions. It avers that the people of the South have not only forfeited their rights, but that they have forfeited them to "the great loyal masses of the North."

Now, if we conceded that the crime of rebellion worked expatriation, and was such an abandonment of citizenship as was annihilative of the rights of those who engaged in it, we should yet utterly deny that those rights reverted to the people of the Northern States. If Virginians did forfeit their right to control the State of Virginia, that right has not been acquired by the people of Massachusetts. If the South Carolinian lost his right to his estate, that has not fallen into the hands of a Pennsylvanian. But the Congress proceeds on this assumption, reckless as it is of the Constitution, that self-government is a dead letter for the Southern people, only so far as Congress authorizes it. A constitutional government is indeed a dead letter if such a doctrine becomes engrafted on the legislation of a country. The only test of loyalty is obedience to the law. As long as the Federal laws are enforced throughout the South, the people stand the only test which the Constitution contemplates.—Nat. Intelligencer.

Correspondence between General B. F. Butler and Brick Pomeroy.

The La Crosse (Wisconsin) Democrat publishes the following correspondence as having taken place between General Butler and its editor, Mr. Pomeroy. It explains itself:

No. 71 BROADWAY, NEW YORK CITY,
January 13, 1867.

M. M. Pomeroy, Editor Democrat, La Crosse, Wisconsin:

SIR:—When in Milwaukie, last October, I made all arrangements with parties there toward the prosecution of the suit I have brought against you for defamation of character, as per preliminary notification and summons. This was the principal object I had in visiting Wisconsin, and my work was done well. On consultation with a few friends I have decided to withdraw the suit if you will agree to stop your personal attacks on me as a man and officer, which have so often appeared in your paper, the La Crosse Democrat. I have no particular desire or [illegible] to collect of you the amount claimed, ($100,000,) but do wish to have your annoying articles stopped, and if you do not accede to this proposition, the law must take its course.

B. F. BUTLER.

REPLY.

SANCTUM OF THE DEMOCRAT,
LA CROSSE, WIS., Jan. 18, 1867.

Major-General Benjamin F. Butler, LL. D:

SIR,—Your note is before me, by to-day's mail, and duly noted. As at present constituted, with a natural disgust for thieves, robbers, turn-coats, military blunderers, bank robbers, women insulters, and evil-hearted scoundrels generally, permit me, in all kindness, to say that I have no retraction to make to you, for I never published a word concerning you that I did not believe true, and which you must know to be true as holy writ, if you are at all familiar with your own dishonorable history as a public being, dignified by accident of birth with the name of man. I would not willingly injure your feelings, or deprise you of your world-wide reputation, so well-earned in the service of Butler as honesty, patriotism, and virtue. Nor do I wish you to die yet awhile, for your name, history, blunders, robberies, insults to women, and treason to your country, are valuable as warnings to the rising generation.

Believing you to be all I have ever charged you with being, confident in my full ability to prove every charge, you are politely privileged to let the law take its own course, when the world will know more of your robberies, history, ambitions, &c., too numerous to mention.

The only favor I ask of you is this: If you conclude to go on with your suit for libel and damages to the amount of $100,000, permit me to plead my own case in court, and give me only time to put my spoons, silverware, watches, jewelry, &c., in some place of safety, outside the court room, till the trial is over.

With best wishes for your success and warm reception in your future home, I am, sir,

M. M. POMEROY,
Editor Democrat, La Crosse, Wis.

A PROPOSITION.

IN WHICH YOU ARE INTERESTED.

I PROPOSE for the protection of the citizens of Raleigh and surrounding country, against the imposition of those so-called Cost Stores, to furnish each and every person, the New York Cost of any goods they may want to buy; by this means they can tell whether they are buying goods at Cost or paying a profit on them.

Call before going to any of those Cost Stores so-called, and let me give you a memorandum of Cost prices.

Most of my large stock I will sell at cost but I have; goods that I will not sell in that way, and neither will those merchants who make such a flourish about selling at Cost.

No merchant in this place has purchased his Goods any cheaper than I bought mine. Any assertion to the contrary is false; and I will guarantee to sell Goods as low as any Cost House. All I ask is an opportunity to prove the truthfulness of this assertion.

Jan. 25-tf.

Hon. John Pool.

We judge that a portion of the proceedings of the House on yesterday, were rather more exciting than usual. Col. Russ having become satisfied, that he had been misled by the representations of Mr. Pool as to his position, pending the election of U. S. Senator at the last session, felt called upon to explain his own course in the matter. We learn Col. Russ laid it on pretty thick. His remarks appear in to-day's issue.

Our reporter states that Dr. Henry, of Bertie, "defended Mr. Pool as a consistent opponent of the Howard amendment, and a man of honor."

We have always looked upon Dr. Henry as a consistent man and a man of honor, as we did upon Mr. Pool, until we were forced much to our own mortification, to believe the contrary. Dr. Henry's views of consistency and honor differ widely from ours. The Dr. certainly has not weighed the facts, the undeniable facts in the case.

Mr. Pool affirms and authorizes Hon. Mr Doolittle to say in the U. S. Senate for him, that he had been always a consistent, uniform Union man—that but for a technicality he could take the test-oath, and that he entered the Senate of this State in '64'-65, for the purpose of embarrassing the Confederate cause or government.

Now, how can Mr. Pool or Dr. Henry or any of Mr. P.'s friends, think that a man could be a consistent Union man and a man of honor, at the time, after the war was in full blast and the proposition was made to make the Confederate government a permanent government, to consent to be a Presidential Elector, to preside in the College of Electors and to cast the vote of the State for Jefferson Davis for President? How could he be a Confederate Elector and a consistent Union man at the same time? Again, how could he be a consistent Union man and a man of honor, to advocate the Confederate cotton loan and advise the people to invest in it, all at the same time? How could he seek the position of State Senator, take a solemn oath to support the Constitution of the State and of the Confederate States, when, in his heart he sought as he now affirms that position, for the purpose of embarrassing the Confederate cause, and yet have been all the time a consistent Union man and a man of honor? And further, how he could desire and seek for an appointment as Brigadier General in the army of the State or South, and be a consistent Union man and a man of honor at the same time? His friend, Mr. Holden denies this, but not four days ago, we were assured by a gentleman, whose word would not be questioned, and who has been on terms of intimate personal friendship with Mr. Pool for many years and knows him thoroughly, that the charge that Mr. Pool desired the appointment of Brigadier General and sought it either directly or indirectly, cannot be disproved or truly called in question, and further he assures us, that Mr. Pool at an early stage of our difficulties, was an advocate of secession, as his speeches showed.

Moreover, how can the conduct of Mr. Pool be reconciled with consistency and honor, in view of his repeated pledges to Gov. Worth and his friends, in reference to the late Governor's election, with his correspondence with Mr. Holden about the time of Gen. Dockery's nomination, or with his conduct on the day of election, when as it is affirmed, he electioneered for Dockery during the day, and voted for Gov. Worth in the evening.

And lastly, how could he have been a consistent opposer of the Howard amendment and a man of honor, when he told Col. Russ, whom he knew was a bitter opposer of the Howard amendment and every species of radicalism, that he and Col. Russ were identical in their views, and yet, as Mr. Holden explains, he was opposed to the Howard amendment, but only because the Howard amendment was not radical enough for Mr. Pool?

Apprenticeships.

This matter has been a source of some trouble, and resulted in a lengthy correspondence between Gov. Worth and the officers of the Freedmen's Bureau, originating in a case in Robeson county, in which D. L. Russell, Esq., late of Brunswick, claimed the service of two negro girls, as duly bound apprentices. The girls and the parents made complaint to the officers of the Bureau, and the girls were taken from Mr. Russell's control. Mr. R. resorted to means to recover them and hence the difficulty; and the Court below, if we remember correctly, ordered the girls back to Mr. Russell. On behalf of the girls, a writ of habeas corpus was obtained, and the case was brought before the present term of the Supreme Court. It was duly argued, and the decision of the Court was rendered by Associate Justice Reade, releasing the girls from Mr. Russell. The Judge's opinion is a lengthy one, and appears in the last Wilmington Journal, but our space forbids its publication. The decision in this case turned upon the question, whether or not the children and parents were duly notified, before the binding out, of the intention of the Court to apprentice them to Mr. Russell. It was in evidence that they had not been notified, whereupon the Court decides that the apprenticeship was illegal. His Honor, while he sustains the uniform, legitimate and proper course of our Courts, embraces the occasion, to warn the Courts against loose, informal and illegitimate action, as in this case, in future.

Be it, therefore, understood that the law of North Carolina, heretofore, and is now that in all cases of binding apprentices, whether white or colored, that the party to be bound, and the parents, should be duly notified, in advance of the action of the Court, and that the parties shall all be present before the Court at the time.—And further, let it be known that now the laws of North Carolina require, the same conditions and course to be pursued in all cases, when minors are to be apprenticed, without regard to color.

Credit of the State.

The following bill presented by Mr. Berry, of Orange, is now pending in the Senate. Its object is excellent and many of our best citizens who have examined it, consider it the measure of the times. Our only difficulty in reference to it, is the doubt, whether State Treasury notes can be made to circulate among the people. We may however, be mistaken.

A BILL MAKING PROVISION FOR THE PAYMENT OF STATE BONDS NOW DUE, AND THE INTEREST ON THE DEBT OF THE STATE.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That for the purpose of paying the bonds of the State now due, and the interest on the State debt, the Public Treasurer is hereby authorized and required to cause Treasury notes to be prepared, to an amount, not exceeding in the whole, one and a half millions of dollars; which said notes shall be signed by the Public Treasurer on behalf of the State, and countersigned by the Comptroller; and each of these officers shall keep, in proper books, separate and accurate accounts, showing the number, date and amount of each of said notes, signed and countersigned by them respectively; and also accounts showing all such of said notes as may be paid or redeemed and cancelled, from time to time; and the Treasurer shall account monthly for all such of said notes as shall have been countersigned by the Comptroller, and delivered to the Treasurer for use.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That the said Treasury notes shall be payable at the Public Treasury, to the bearer on the first of January, A. D. 1873, and shall bear interest at the rate of one per centum per annum for every hundred dollars, and in that proportion for sums greater or less than one hundred dollars; and be of the several denominations of five dollars, ten dollars, twenty dollars, and fifty dollars, and be issued in the following proportions, that is to say: Of the notes of five dollars and ten dollars, five hundred thousand dollars each; of twenty dollars, three hundred thousand dollars; of fifty dollars, two hundred thousand dollars.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That the principal money and interest due on said notes shall be paid at maturity, to the several holders thereof, upon demand at the Treasury, out of any monies not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, That the said notes may be issued by the Public Treasurer in payment of bonds of the State now due, and in payment of the interest of any bond of the State of North Carolina bearing interest, whether there be coupons attached or not; but in all cases of coupon bonds, the coupons due at the time of such payment shall be surrendered to the Treasurer. The said notes shall also, at any time hereafter, be receivable at the Treasury in payment of all public dues, and in making such payment, the holders shall have credit for the principal money and the interest due on his notes up to the day of payment to the Treasurer, Sheriff, Tax Collector, or other Agent of the State; and accounts shall be kept by the Treasurer aforesaid, of the notes thus paid or redeemed, distinguishing the amounts paid for interest, from the principal.

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That the said Treasury notes shall be received by the Sheriffs and other collecting officers, in payment of the public and county taxes in their respective counties.

SEC. 6. Be it further enacted, That the holders of the Treasury notes, issued under the authority of this act, may fund the same at any time after the first of January, 1870, on application to the Public Treasury, who is hereby authorized to deliver in exchange for them, computing interest as well as principal, bonds of the State payable in thirty years or earlier, at the pleasure of the Legislature, at the public Treasury, bearing interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, payable half yearly, secured by coupons attached thereunto: Provided, That such bonds shall be issued in sums of one hundred dollars and five hundred dollars only. And they shall be made to bear interest from the first day of January, April, July, or October, in the year of their issue, and interest on the notes received in exchange for them, shall not be allowed beyond such day; and of the bonds and notes thus delivered and received, full and accurate accounts shall be kept as aforesaid; the said bonds to be prepared and issued agreeably to the provisions of the nineteenth chapter of the Revised Code.

SEC. 7. Be it further enacted, That the Treasury notes received at the Treasury, as aforesaid, shall not be re-issued, but shall be deemed to be paid and cancelled; but other Treasury notes of the same amounts and denominations may be issued as aforesaid in lieu of those thus cancelled, for the payment of interest on the bonds of the State from time to time, as the same shall fall due, which shall be capable of all the uses, and subject to the provisions mentioned in this act: Provided, That the amount of said notes at any time outstanding, shall not exceed the sum aforesaid of one and one half million of dollars.

SEC. 8. Be it further enacted, That for falsely making, forging, counterfeiting, or causing, or procuring the same to be done, or willingly aiding or assisting therein any Treasury note, bond or coupon aforesaid, and for uttering or publishing, passing, delivering or attempting to pass or deliver any false, forged or counterfeited Treasury note, bond or coupon aforesaid, as provided in regard to other instruments in writing, in sections 60 and 61, of the Revised Code, chapter 31, any person so offending, shall, on conviction, be punished as therein prescribed.

MONTGOMERY, January 22.—ExGovernor Parsons, by request, has addressed the Legislature in convention in emphatic opposition to the constitutional amendment.

IMPEACHMENT.—Various reports from superior Radical sources of information, touching the secret machinations of the impeachment conspirators have been made public; but what is stated to have actually transpired should rather have been to the effect that they are determined upon. We fear that the conspirators contemplate at this time such desperate steps, that the country will literally recoil should they move on to the consummation of their plots, against the integrity and security of the Government.—Nat. Intelligencer.

Mr. Wade announced his purpose to press the immediate passage of the amendment excluding President and Vice President from re-election, in order to give oportunity for the Legislatures now in session to act upon it.

REMARKS OF

MR. RUSS, OF WAKE,

In the House, on yesterday, on a privilege question.

MR. SPEAKER: I rise sir, to a privilege question and desire the Clerk to do me the favor to read the article marked in the North Carolina Standard of the 24th Dec. 1866, which statements have never been denied.

Mr. Speaker, you will probably recollect, and this House will recollect, that on the day of election for Senator of the United States, I put in nomination and made a speech proposing the claims of the Hon. John Pool, for that distinguished position; before I did so, however, I had an interview with that gentleman and learned, as I supposed, his real feelings and opinions in reference to the "Howard amendment" and other kindred subjects.

I approached him frankly and cordially, as I always do a warm personal and political friend. I told Mr. Pool that I was glad to meet up with him,—that I had called at his room several times, but found him absent. I said to him that I wanted to vote for him, and if you are opposed to the "Howard amendment" I will do so, and think you will ultimately be elected. I told Mr. Pool that I could not and would not vote for any living man who was for it, or for anything like it, but that rumor was busy against him, He laid one or both of his hands upon my shoulder and said, in substance, that he "was glad to have an opportunity of setting himself right, and declared that he was as much opposed to the "Howard amendment" as I could be, and was glad to know that he and I occupied the same ground." I expressed myself satisfied, whereupon, he asked me to nominate him; I did so; I spoke and voted for him every ballot, and would have done so until "Gabriel had blown;" for if there is any distinguishing trait in my character it is to stand firmly by my principles and my friends. I told the people of Wake in the late canvass that I would not vote for the "Howard amendment" or for any man who was for it or for anything like it.

Then, Mr. Speaker, the sequel shows that I was wofully deceived, and that too, by one that I regarded as a fast personal and political friend,—the Hon. John Pool, I regret to have to say this, but it is true, sir, and I feel that it is my privilege and my duty to ask pardon of this House for the statements I made and the votes I gave on that occasion. I feel, sir, that it is my duty to ask pardon of my two colleagues upon this floor, whom I deceived and misled in that matter, and above all, Mr. Speaker, I feel that I owe it to my constituents, the good, the intelligent, the honest, the confiding, the patriotic freemen of Wake county, whom I have the honor in part to represent upon this floor, to declare that I regret that vote more than any political act of my life—and but for the deception practiced upon me—should have been the last man to have given it.

Mr. Speaker, my resolutions in references to the loyalty of the people of this State, my votes, my whole Legislative record shows, that I was imposed upon. I feel, sir, in my heart that they will forgive me—for I have represented this people for a long time. I have never deceived them—I have never told them an untruth and I never will. They have given me as high as 1700 majority against the most formidable opposition, and I am here to-day, sir, because they have confidence in my integrity and my political honesty. I am a Union man to-day, and this, sir, is the best evidence of the loyalty of my people, for nearly all of them voted for me.

I can truthfully say, there has not been a day or an hour since the first gun was fired at Fort Sumpter,—since the attempted secession of North Carolina up to the surrender of Generals Lee and Johnson, that I would not gladly have returned to the government we attempted to leave; but I want it distinctly understood, sir, that I am no unconditional Union man, (in the present acceptation of that term.) I was not a Union man in 1861-'2-'3 and '4, for the purpose of disfranchising white men and enfranchising black men. I detest a white man with negro principles, at all times, and have no sympathy with, or respect for the abandoned white wretch, who will voluntarialy enter in respectable negro meeting and by resolution ask to be made their equal by the Congress of the United States.

Mr. Speaker. I declined being a candidate in 1861 for the Convention, because I could not and would not vote for the Ordinance of secession. I also declined being a candidate for the late Convention, after my friends had presented my name, for the reason that I knew that we should be required to rejoice and be exceedingly glad, that we are robbed of our property; and, sir, my notions of honesty would not allow me to endorse and sanction the theft—the indiscriminate theft, which has been perpetrated upon this people.

Mr. Speaker. I have always hated secession, the doctrine of secession, (not the honest secessionist) as I do the Devil in hell; but sir, candor compels me to say, there is nothing comparable on earth or in hell to rampant Radicalism, North and South.

OBJECTION 1.

I'M TOO POOR; I CAN'T AFFORD IT.

ANSWER.

If you are too poor to save less than half a dollar per week, at from 30 to 35 years of age, or proportionately at other ages, and find it so difficult to do so—should you be taken away by death, how bitterly poverty will strike home to your widow and children, or those dependent on you? Is it not worth a struggle to avoid this, and give them at least $1,000 by paying so small a sum? It costs just $2,00 per month to insure $1,000 at the age of 32 years.

OBJECTION 2.

I've talked to several of my friends, and they all advise me to have nothing to do with it.

ANSWER.

Will your friends undertake to provide for those you leave behind, in case you do not live long enough to save money? Ask them, and be guided by their answer.

OBJECTION 3.

I can't make up my mind; call again.

ANSWER.

Your other objections have been answered. I appeal to your own common sense to answer this for yourself, aided by

Ask the gentlemen if they will sell heavy 4-4 Brown Domestic at 18 c. per yd?

Ask them if they will sell New York Mills 44 Bleached Domestics at 35 c. per yd.

Ask the gentlemen if they will sell Wamsutta and Lonsdale 4-4 Bleached Domestics at 28 c.

Ask them if they will sell Rio Coffee at 20½ c. per lb. a good article, not dead grains, NOT ROCKS, BUT COFFEE.

If they will sell them at the above prices they are cheap, if they will not, leave immediately.

A FEW WORDS TO MY FRIENDS AND CUSTOMERS.

I advertised in the early part of the season that I would sell goods as cheap, as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, Cost Houses not excepted—as cheap as he who had paid for his goods, or ever intended to pay for them. And I here take the privilege to say, that I think my customers will bear me out when I say, I have done so in almost every instance.

I told the people to "come to Creech's," to buy their goods—they have come, and they are still coming—and I think they will pardon me when I say they have shown their good judgment.

I now tell them to "come to Creech's" to buy their goods.

I don't advertise my goods at New York Cost—I intend to represent my goods to you in a fair and equitable way, and sell them fully as cheap as any so-called Cost House. And I here say to the so-called cost gentlemen, if they paid what they charge their customers for goods, I advise them to go back to the License man and surrender their license. Go back to your Land-lords and ask them to take back your houses,—and proclaim to the world that you have missed your calling, and are not fit for merchants.

I compromised my debts that I owed North before the war, by paying them at one hundred cents in the dollar.

Let them start their opposition—let them all fail. But "come to Creech's," to buy your goods. You will find me at B. Smith's corner, ready and willing at all times to serve you right.

IMPORTANT SALE.

I WILL SELL AT PUBLIC AUCTION IN THE Town of Henderson, on Tuesday the 12th. February next, valuable situated within one mile of the Town of Henderson, on a never failing stream of water, which affords sufficient power to attach a Cotton Factory, if purchaser should so desire. These Mills are new, and in excellent working order; they having been built last year. Have been in successful operation for the past five months, during which time the Saw Mill alone has yielded an income of about five thousand dollars.

Manufacturing and Saw Mills;

I will sell with Mill, one hundred and fifty acres of heavy timbered land, said timber of superior quality. Also the timber off of two hundred and fifty acres of land, all of which is adjoining the Mill property.

Will be sold at the same time, two good yoke of Oxen, one Log Cart, a splendid pair of Mules, one two-horse Wagon and Harness, a superior lot of Hogs of improved stock, and many other articles too numerous to mention, including one sett Blacksmith tools.

Also, at the same time and place, two very valuable

Houses and Lots,

situated in the Town of Henderson.

I feel no hesitancy in pronouncing the above property, as valuable as any of the kind in the State.—Capitalists desirous of investing in property that will pay, can do no better than examine this property and buy.

Terms made known on day of sale.

It is a valuable location for a Cotton Factory, and one of the cheapest markets for purchasing cotton. FERTILIZERS FOR SPRING CROPS.

WE beg to inform the trade and planters of North Carolina and Virginia, that we are prepared to furnish them with the most approved FERTILIZERS, on the most accommodating terms. We will have a stock of genuine PERUVIAN GUANO, purchased direct from the Agent of the Peruvian Government.

We have now in store, for immediate delivery, 325 tons BRADLEY'S SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME, which won for itself such an enviable reputation in the Cotton and Tobacco counties of North Carolina and Virginia, last season, proving itself equal, and in many important respects, superior to the Peruvian Guano. We give an analysis of it as acertained by Dr. Hayes, one of the most eminent Chemists in the country:

Results of Analyses Made of Bradley's Patent Super-Phosphate of Lime, as now sold by Wm. L. Bradley.

100 Parts Consist of
Moisture	5.30
Prepared animal matter, salts of Ammonia, fatty substances and Humans	38.50
Bone Phosphates of Lime, Magnesia and Iron (Soluble Phosphates of do. 16 6-10.)	36.80
Sulphate of Lime
Salts	16.50
Insoluble	20
	2.60
	99.90

The animal matter afforded 4 2-10 parts of Ammonia when it was decomposed, and, as will be seen, nearly one-half of the Bone Phosphate is soluble.

After many analyses of your Super-Phosphate of Lime, made during the last few months, I have found your standard of quality full equal to that of any you have ever sold in former years; and I am satisfied that you include the correct principles in the manufacture. Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

We refer to the following gentlemen who tested its merits last season:

Mrs. Ransom's Seminary, says the Wilmington Journal, commences its second term 3d of Feb. It is a success and has already established a good reputation.

Our Wednesday Morning Dispatches.

Washington Matters.

Washington, Jan. 29.

The President submits the correspondence relative to the Frazier, Trenholm & Co. settlement. It involves unsatisfactory and contradictory orders to agents of the Treasury, but shows no new facts.

Allen B. Magruder applied for admission to practice at the Supreme Court of the District. Judge Carter refused action, setting the case for full hearing before a full bench. Magruder is a member of the bar of the Federal Supreme Court, but cannot take the test-oath.

The Nebraska veto confines the argument to its inconsistency with the enabling act and Constitution.

Of the additional section conferring suffrage on all citizens by legislative action, contrary to the verbiage of the Constitution, regularly adopted, on which Nebraska claims admission, the President maintains indirectly, but positively, the rights of States to regulate franchise within their boundaries, and urged that the organic changes proposed by Congress be submitted to the people of Nebraska.

Congress.

Washington, Jan. 29.

House.—The Committee on Elections asked to be relieved from the consideration of the illegal voting in Maryland,—that the committee could only enquire into the acts of the President, and the judiciary had him in hand. The Committee was relieved and the matter referred to the Judiciary.

The Retrenchment Committee reported an elaborate bill regulating civil service. It provides that all appointments except those constitutionally conferred on the President, shall be made by three Commissioners, who shall hold five years, and be styled the Civil Service Examining Board, with a salary of five thousand dollars per annum for each, with a clerk at two thousand dollars and a messenger with six hundred dollars.

Mr. Jencks made a long speech in favor of the bill. Postponed.

The Speaker appointed Mr. Farnsworth on the Reconstruction Committee, vice Mr. Washburne who has leave of absence during the session.

The Secretary of the Interior was called on for information relative to Indian Massacres.

Mr. Schenk called the Indian Department a nest of thieves.

The House went into Committee of the whole on appropriations, and passed amendments prohibiting payments to Mr. Harvey, at Lisbon, or for the Minister at Rome, the latter in view of the prohibition of Protestant worship in Rome.

In the Senate, the correspondence relative to the Austrian Minister's resignation was received and laid on the table.

The Colorado veto was read, and motions to postpone its consideration occupied the time of the Senate till the expiration of the morning hour.

Mr. Motley's Correspondence.

Washington, Jan. 29.

The following is the correspondence between Secretary Seward and Mr. Motley, Minister at Vienna.

Washington, Nov. 21st, 1866.

Sir:—A citizen of the United States addressed a letter to the President from Paris, which represents that he had traveled in Europe last year, and had occasion to see Ministers and Consuls to various countries, and that most of them are bitterly hostile to the President and administration. He adds that you do not pretend to conceal "your disgust," as he says you style it, at the President's whole conduct. That you despise American democracy, and loudly proclaim that an English gentleman is a model of human perfection. That the President has deserted pledges and principles in common with Seward, who you say is hopelessly degraded. Your denial or confirmation is requested.

(Signed) W. H. Seward.

Motley replies, that his first impulse was to content himself with a flat denial of the reports. But on further reflection he did not wish that there should be a doubt as to his political sentiments. He always believed that strong guarantees should be taken against a recurrence of the rebellion and re-establishment of slavery, before the seceded States should be re-admitted to Congress. Latterly, he was inclined to the opinion that the noblest and safest course would be to adopt the amendment to the Constitution, prohibiting distinctions on account of race or color in franchise, together with general amnesty.

These opinions in the privacy of his own household, and to occasional American visitors had not been concealed. He never thought that because he was a public servant of the American people, that he was deprived of the right of discussing, within his own walls, the grandest subjects that can interest freemen, and had always been careful in such conversations not to use expressions of disrespect towards the President or cabinet He warmly denies the other allegations, and in conclusion, tenders his resignation of the post of Minister at Vienna.

The New York Times Washington special says, it has the best authority for saying that the letter to the London Times from its Washington correspondent referred to in the cable dispatch the other day, contains nothing of the kind attributed to it. In the Convention with the President he did not refer to Congress at all.

PERUVIAN GUANO SUBSTITUTE!

BAUGH'S

RAW BONE SUPER-PHOSPHATE OF LIME.

Manufactured under the formula originated in 1854 and patented by

BAUGH & SONS,

SOLE PROPRIETORS, AT THE

Delaware River Chemical Works,

PHILADELPHIA, U. S. A.

This old established MANURE is manufactured from Bones that have not been burned or steamed, and it contains all their original organic matter. It is active in its operation, and is a fertilizer of great durability. It does not exhaust the soil like Peruvian Guano, but on the contrary permanently improves it.

Previous to 1861 it was introduced into the Southern States to considerable extent, and again in 1865, where it has been used with remarkable success upon Cotton, Corn, Tobacco, and all Crops.

A trial will convince any planter of its merits.—Pamphlets containing well-known Southern evidence furnished upon application to New York or Philadelphia offices.

LIFE INSURANCE.

MANY insure their lives because they see the folly of neglecting to do so. Many who do not insure, argue that it is folly to insure. Which is right? If those who do not insure can cite instances of the harm done by a policy of life Insurance, if they can point out men who have lost $5,000 to $100,000 by Life Insurance, then upon proof of same, we must believe them. Hundreds of instances can readily be shown where parties have been benefitted to this extent.—In North Carolina there are some Widows and Children ready to testify to the good resulting from a life Insurance on their only earthly dependence.

The "Ætna Life Co., in loosing $23,000 the past year has relieved want—and now with over $4,000,000 of assets—offers sure protection to all those who will avail themselves of her liberal terms, by calling on a graduate, and for fifteen years, (up to the commencement of the war) a

Professor of the Virginia

MILITARY INSTITUTE, and a colleague of

The course of the Institution is that of the Virginia Military Institute, and is such as to make the Academy a great

POLYTECHNIC SCHOOL.

A school of theoretical and applied science, in which Languages and Literature also receive a due share of attention. The discipline and instructions are on a Complete Military Basis.

The Faculty is for the present organized as follows:

COLSTON, late Professor of French, and of Military History, Strategy and Political Economy at the Virginia Military Institute, and late Brig. General C. S. A.

Until the appointment of additional Professors, Gen. Colston takes charge of the Department of French and English studies and Belles Lettres.

Professor of Natural and Experimental Philosophy, Ordnance, Gunnery and instructor of Artillery tactics, Major D. TRUEHEART, Graduate of the Virginia Military Institute in 1850—afterwards Assistant Professor of the Va. Military Institute—attached to the United states Coast Survey—late Major and Chief of Artillery in the C. S. Army.

Professor of Mathematics, Civil and Military Engineering, Architecture, Topographical and Industrial Drawing, and Assistant Instructor of Infantry tactics, Maj. W. A. OBENCHAIN, "first distinguished Graduate," of his Class in the Virginia Military Institute, and for efficient and meritorious services during the war, promoted Captain of Engineers in the late C. S. Army.

Professor of Chemistry, Agricultural Chemistry, Geology and Mineralogy, Col. LEWELLYN HOXTON, "Distinguished graduate" of West Point Military Academy, and late Chief of Artillery to Hardee's Corps.

Surgeons Drs. E. & W. S. STRUDWICK.

New appointments will be made, and the Chairs now filled will be subdivided as soon as the number of Cadets makes it desirable.

Applicants for Professorships must be gentlemen of Scientific and Military education, who have served in the field.

Candidates for admission as Cadets are advised to come without delay. Until the 1st. of February next, all those Cadets present at the Academy, will be pushed forward in their studies irrespective of classes, so as to enable them, at that time, to enter the most advanced classes for which they may be found qualified.

By coming at once they may gain an entire year in the term of their education.
